

Telecommuting

The telecommuting policy provides criteria, standards, and processes for the evaluation, implementation, and management of telecommuting assignments. Telecommuting is an option for addressing temporary and extended work assignments where a remote temporary duty station will mutually benefit the employer and employee.

Supporting Documents

Telecommuting Policy A-35 879.84 KB
